Anti-mascot protest set in Seminole

Posted: August 30, 2006

The Intertribal Council of the Five Civilized Tribes-made up of the Chickasaw, Choctaw, Cherokee, Creek and Seminole-passed in 2001 a resolution stating that “the use of derogatory American Indian images such as mascots by public schools perpetuate a stereotypical image of American Indians that is likely to have a negative impact on the self-esteem of American Indian children.”

University, tribe celebrate thirty years together

Native American Times 8/29/2006

Education officials are touting the partnership forged between an Oklahoma tribe and an Ohio college as an example of Indian nations making learning and research a top priority. For over three decades now the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma has enjoyed a “thriving and mutually enriching relationship” with Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, said Bobbe Burke, coordinator of relations between the school and the tribe.

Oneida comedian on Letterman Wednesday

Gannett Wisconsin Newspapers

Shoot-from-the-hip comedian Charlie Hill, a native of Oneida, is scheduled to appear Wednesday night on “The Late Show with David Letterman.”

It's a return appearance for Hill, who has known Letterman since early days in show business for both. Hill's career mixes stand-up gigs with prominent appearances at the opening of the National Museum of the American Indian at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C., and the American Indian Film Institute Festival Awards in San Francisco. Hill was a staff writer for TV's "Roseanne" and "Moesha" and is leader of the "Club Red" radio show. He also has appeared on the Johnny Carson and Jay Leno shows.
